Me ke kai kahakai ki'i lihilihi i ke one
E ō, e Puanani me Kapala kou inoa

Let's go, we're
Invited and wish
To visit, enjoy and relax
With Puanani and Kapala

Arriving at Kailua
Board the boat "Imua" by name
Sail the long sea of
Kona, famous for it's calm

Anchor in the channel of Mahai'ula
I see hands waving
Board the small boat and row
Until (we) reach land

Happy, dear friends
Warmly embracing
Exchanging kisses
The greeting of the Hawaiian

Inviting is the cool comfort of the home
Lighthearted contentment among friends
Windborne fragrance of the flowers
Oleander, hibiscus, crown flower

Heaps of delicacies from the sea
Together with drinks (waters from America)
Ate and drank our fill
There was nothing left

Greeted by the "voice" of the generator
Softly humming throughout the hours
Telling the news
That electricity has come to the beach

I am entranced by the twilight
That lights the very ends of the earth
Here, evening moon rises
Making love with Morning Star

Chorus:
Beautiful, how truly beautiful
Mahai'ula in the calm
Spread out there lengthwise
With the sea drawing lace pictures on the sand
Answer, Puanani and Kapala to your name song
