KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

PAM DORR

As an entrepreneur, Pam Dorr runs two non-profits and five small businesses — creating affordable housing and economic development that provide jobs and job training. Pam is the Executive Director of the Hale Empowerment & Revitalization

Organization, Inc. (HERO) and Habitat for Humanity, Hale County, Inc.

As a grassroots non-profit, HERO creates community development opportunities that celebrate rural communities in the Alabama Black Belt. HERO builds affordable housing and economic development to create jobs and job training.

Pam grew up outside San Francisco and enjoyed a successful 18-year career in the apparel industry prior to dedicating herself to community development work. Joining Auburn University's Rural Studio in 2003, she studied innovations in architecture as an Outreach Fellow and stayed in Hale County to found HERO Housing Resource Center in 2004 and Habitat in 2006. She has led completion of more than $15,000,000 in community development assets.

DEWITT JONES

Dewitt Jones is one of America's top professional photographers with a career stretching more than 20 years.

As a motion picture director, he had two documentary films nominated for Academy Awards.

Turning to advertising, Jones rose to the forefront of corporate creative marketing, photographing national advertising campaigns for Dewar's Scotch, Canon, and United Airlines.

He has published nine books, including The Nature of Leadership in collaboration with Stephen R. Covey (The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People). Dewitt's column Basic Jones, appears monthly in Outdoor Photographer magazine.

He is a cum laude graduate of Dartmouth College with a B.A. in Drama and holds a masters degree in film making from UCLA.

Dewitt is recognized as a world class lecturer. His knowledge of the creative process, his relaxed and genuine style, and his ability to communicate make his presentations truly outstanding.
