Searching for Print Resources

1. Print Encyclopedias (located in the Reference section)
   a. Great for a general overview of your topic
   b. Most topics are covered to some degree in the encyclopedia
   c. May not be the best choice for current information or coverage

2. From the Keanolani LC blog page (blogs.ksbe.edu/gekimoto)
   You can use links from our page to find books or magazine articles.

3. To search for a book, you can use the KS Polaris OPAC page which is available from any computer with Internet access.
4. To search for a magazine or newspaper article,
   a. click on the EBSCO link.
   b. To log in to EBSCO from home, you will be prompted to enter a user name and password. username is Kamehameha and password is imua
   c. EBSCO accesses articles that have been in print circulation.
   d. Be sure to click on full text and select the “type” of articles you would like to find

Type your search term here

Uncheck all boxes but magazines and newspapers

Be sure to click “full text” and select proper lexile reading level.