

Timmy the Tarsier's journal

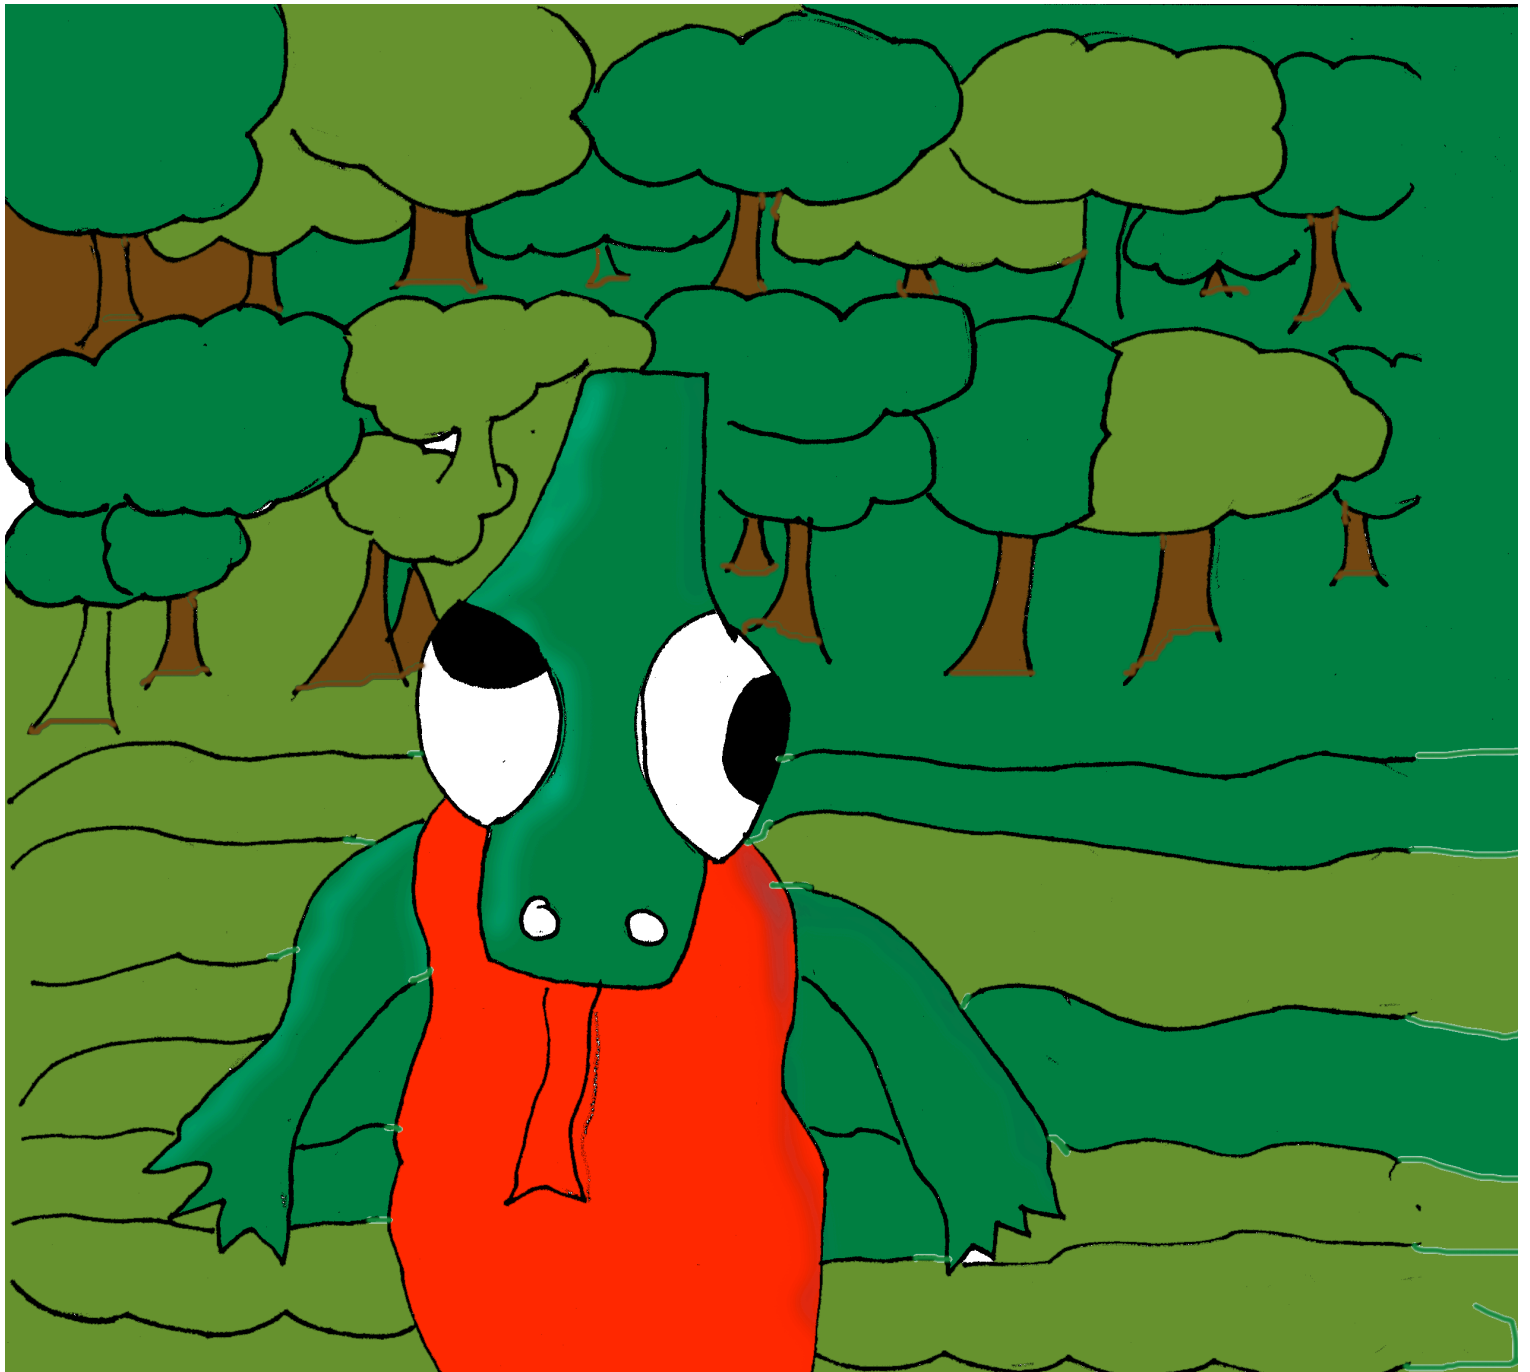

By: Maika Enhada

Dear journal,
Today is my first day of school. I have big eyes that help me see in the dark. I hope that I don't get teased.

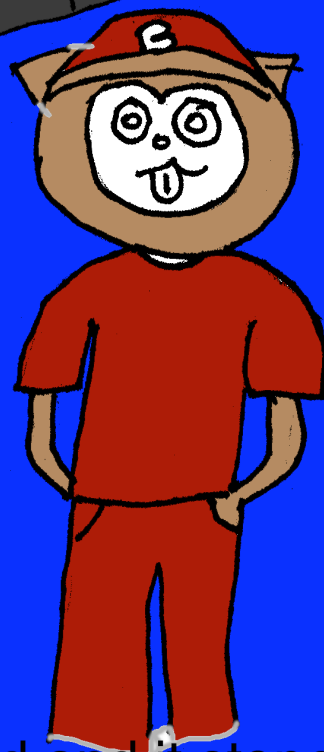

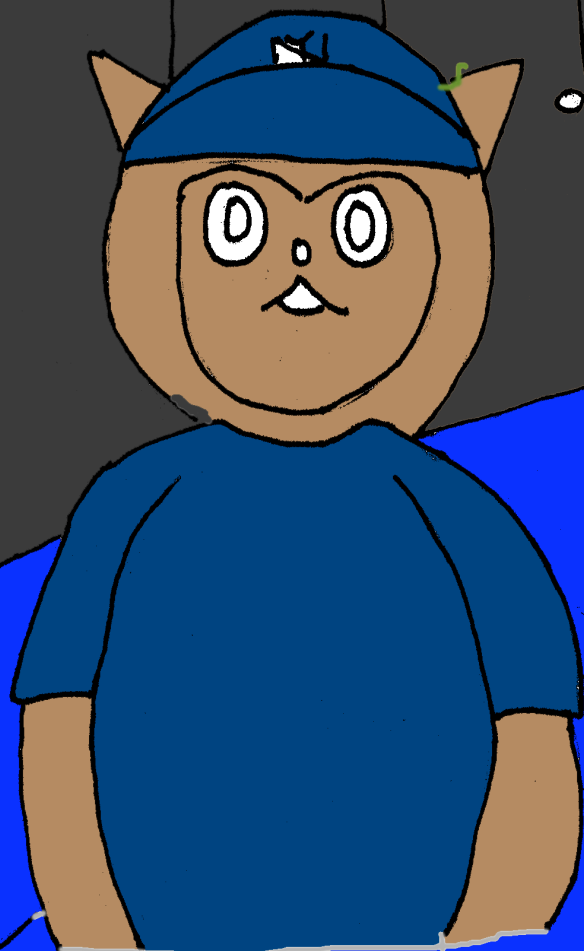

Dear journal, I ran away and met a boy named Jackson he is a chameleon. I saw him from my favorite spot in the tree.

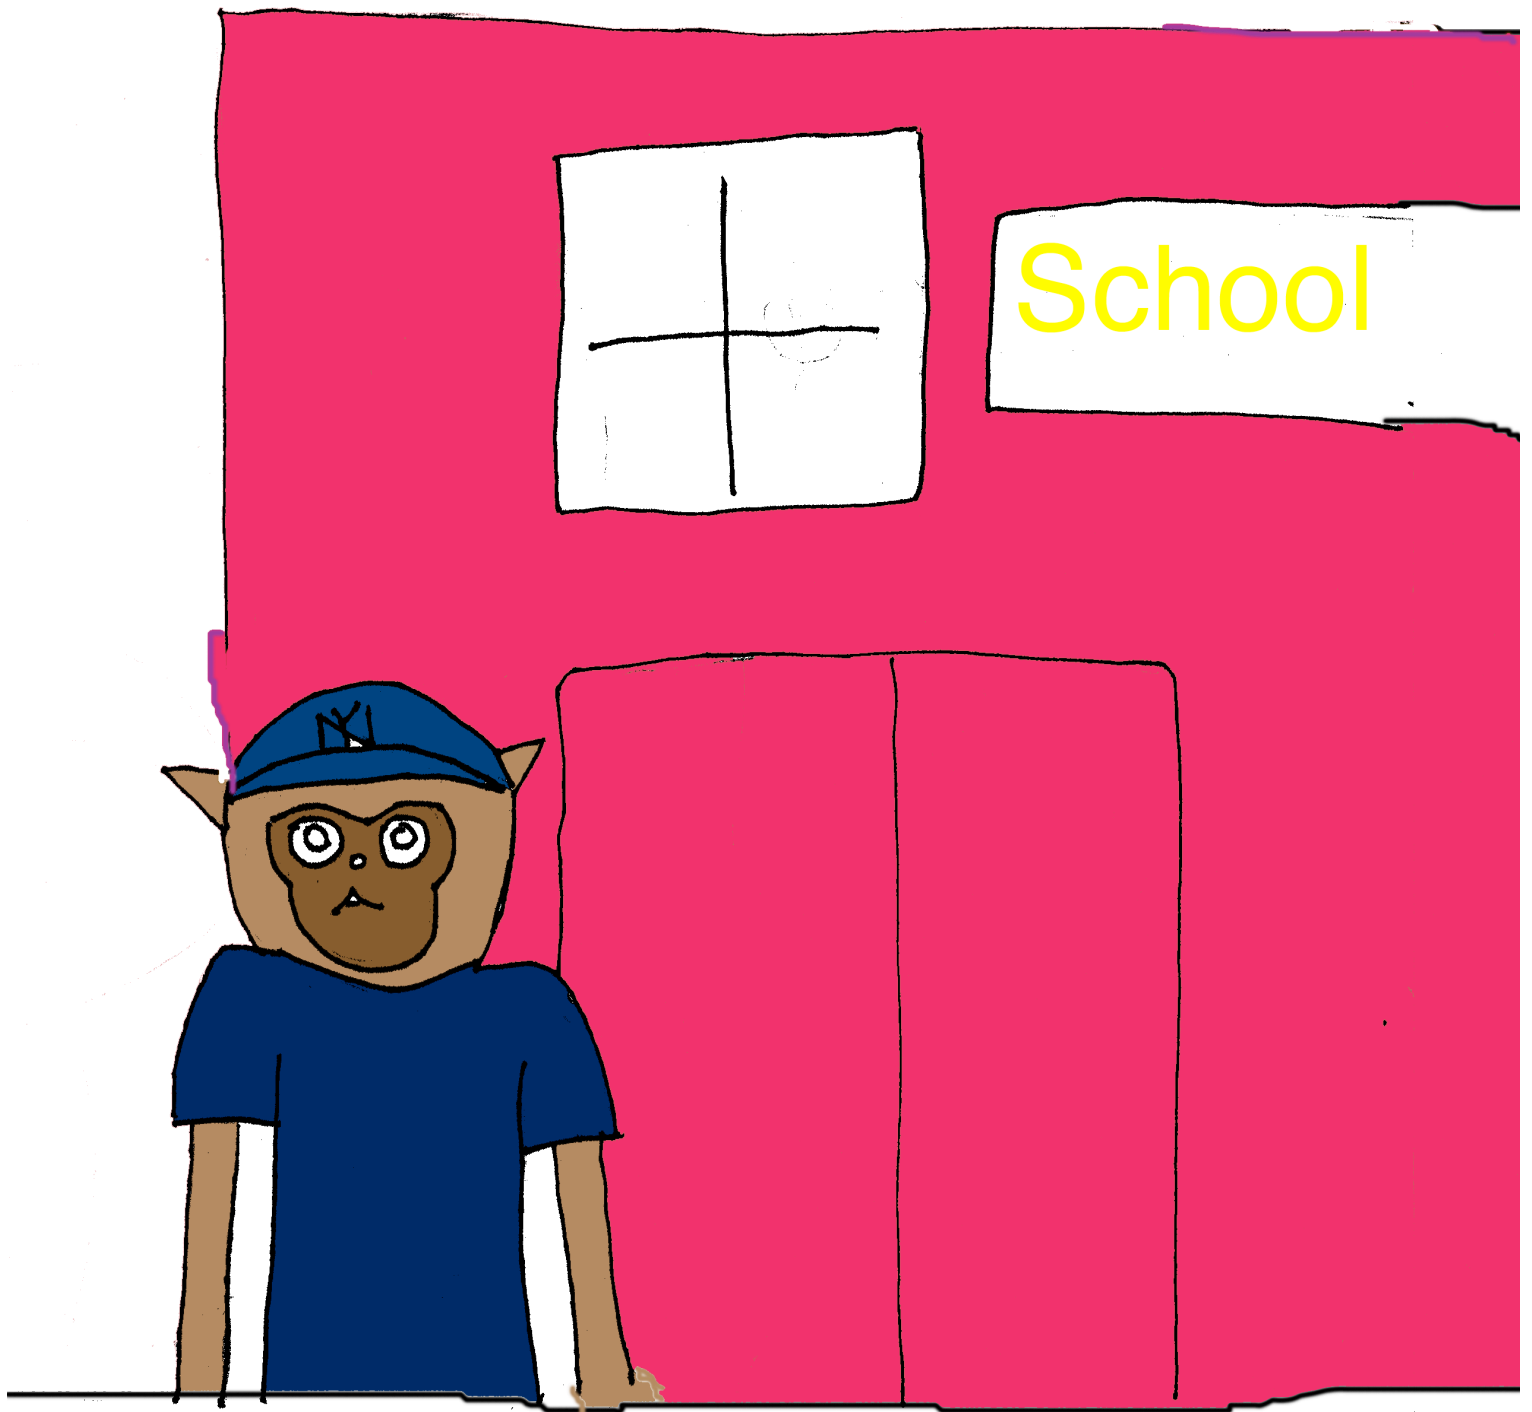

Dear journal, When i saw Jackson i told him about my problem and said he had the same eye problems. He told me he had the same problems and he just ignored it and they went away.

Be cool dont do drugs in shhool!:)

Dear journal, I did what Jackson said and it stoped the teasing. I love school :) I also got to eat my favorite type of bugs for lunch.

Dear journal,

Today i went to my forest school. Today i got teased because of my eyes. i know ill tape my eyes

Dear journal, the tape came off and i got teased. i dont want to go to school anymore. SERIOUSLY! Plus everybody thinks my fur is different type if brown, but were all the same.
