My name is Tazzy the tasmanian devil and I live in a den with only my mama. I am nocturnal, that means I am awake during the night.

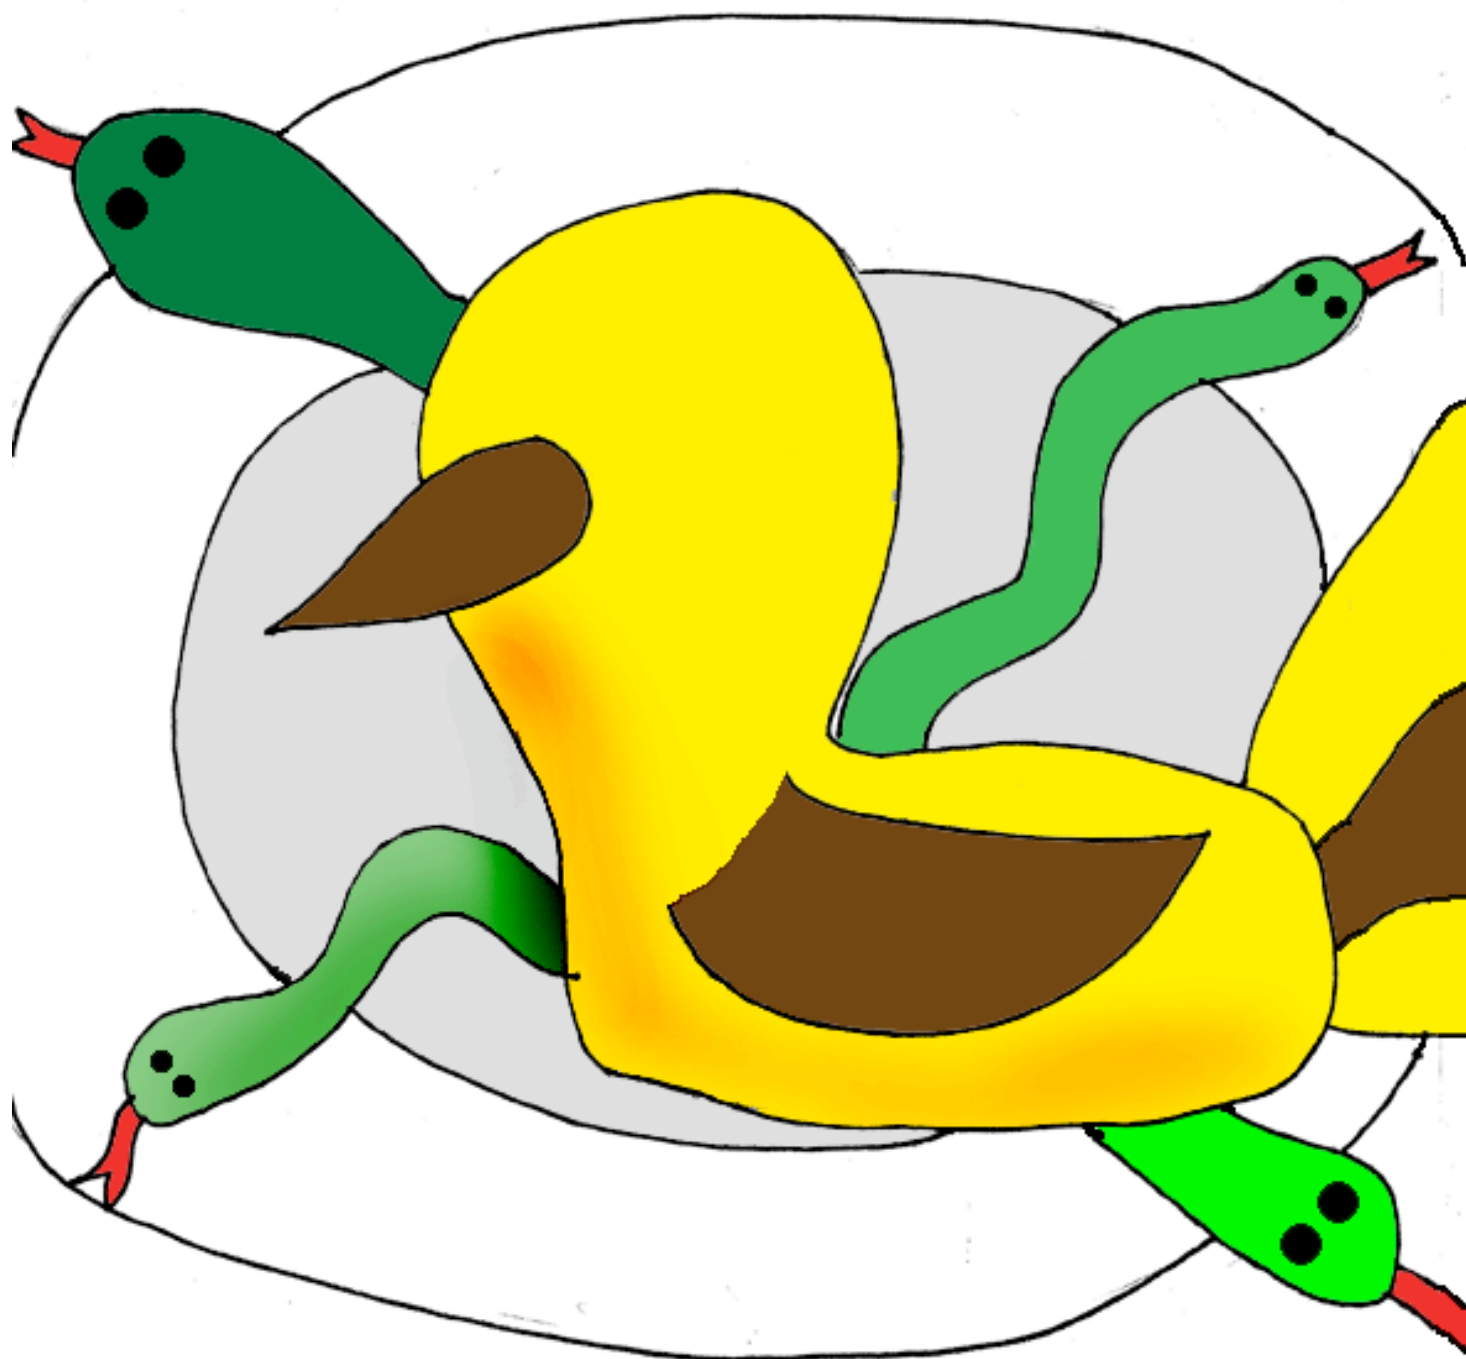

I play with my friends Wombat and Joey until sun down.
Wombat and Joey are my best friends.

After we played hide and go seek, Wombat and Joey had to go. I went back to my den and waited to see them tomorrow.

I wanted to make my friends a treat. Mama and I made them my favorite dish...

BIRDS STUFFED WITH SNAKES!

I went to share the treat with my friends. All of a sudden, I screamed at them and my ears turned red. They ran away.

I ran home and told mama what happened. She told me that tasmanian devils are very protective over their food. Whenever I feel mad, I should stop and count to ten.

The next day, I told Wombat and Joey that I was sorry for screaming at them. Whenever I get mad, I will stop and count to ten.
