

Elley the Elephant seal

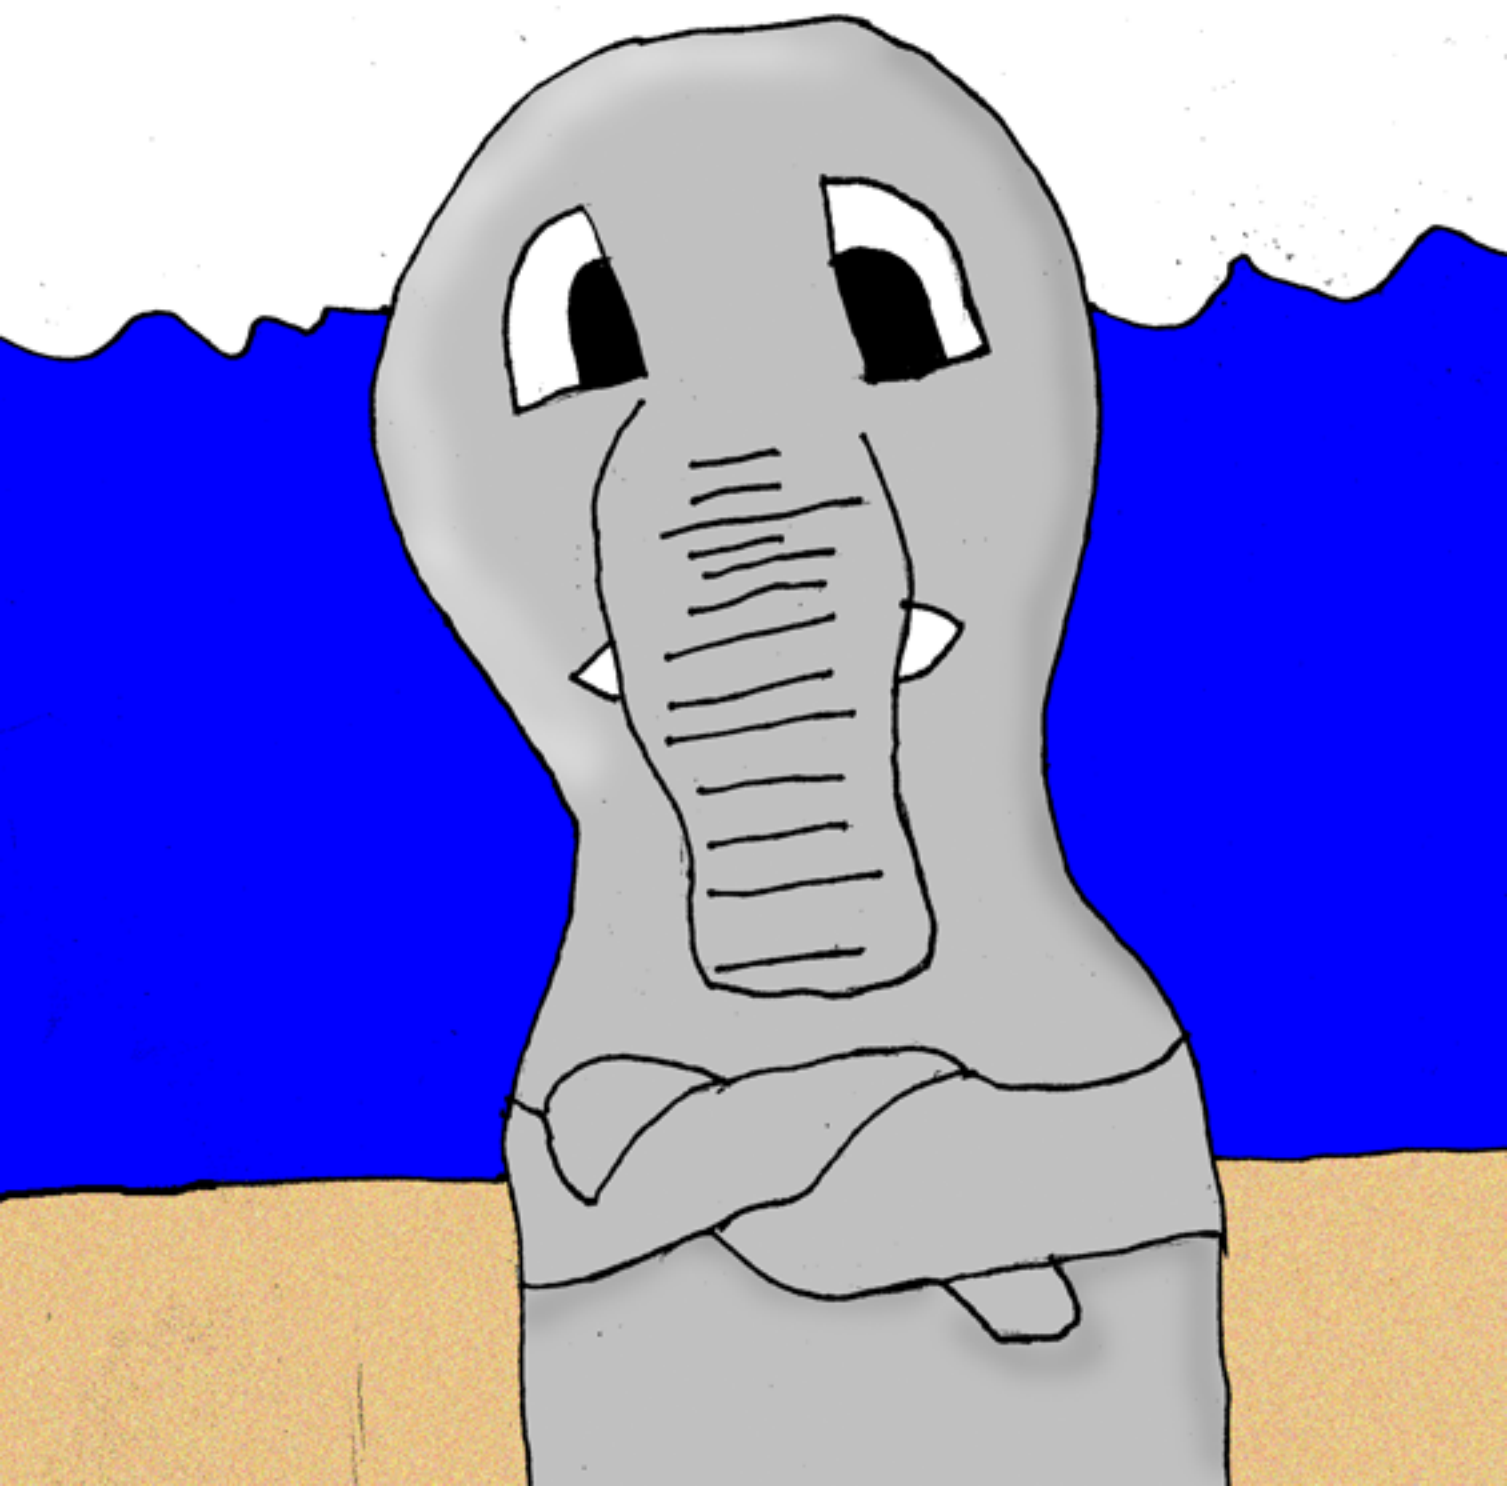

By: Micah Paraan Colburn

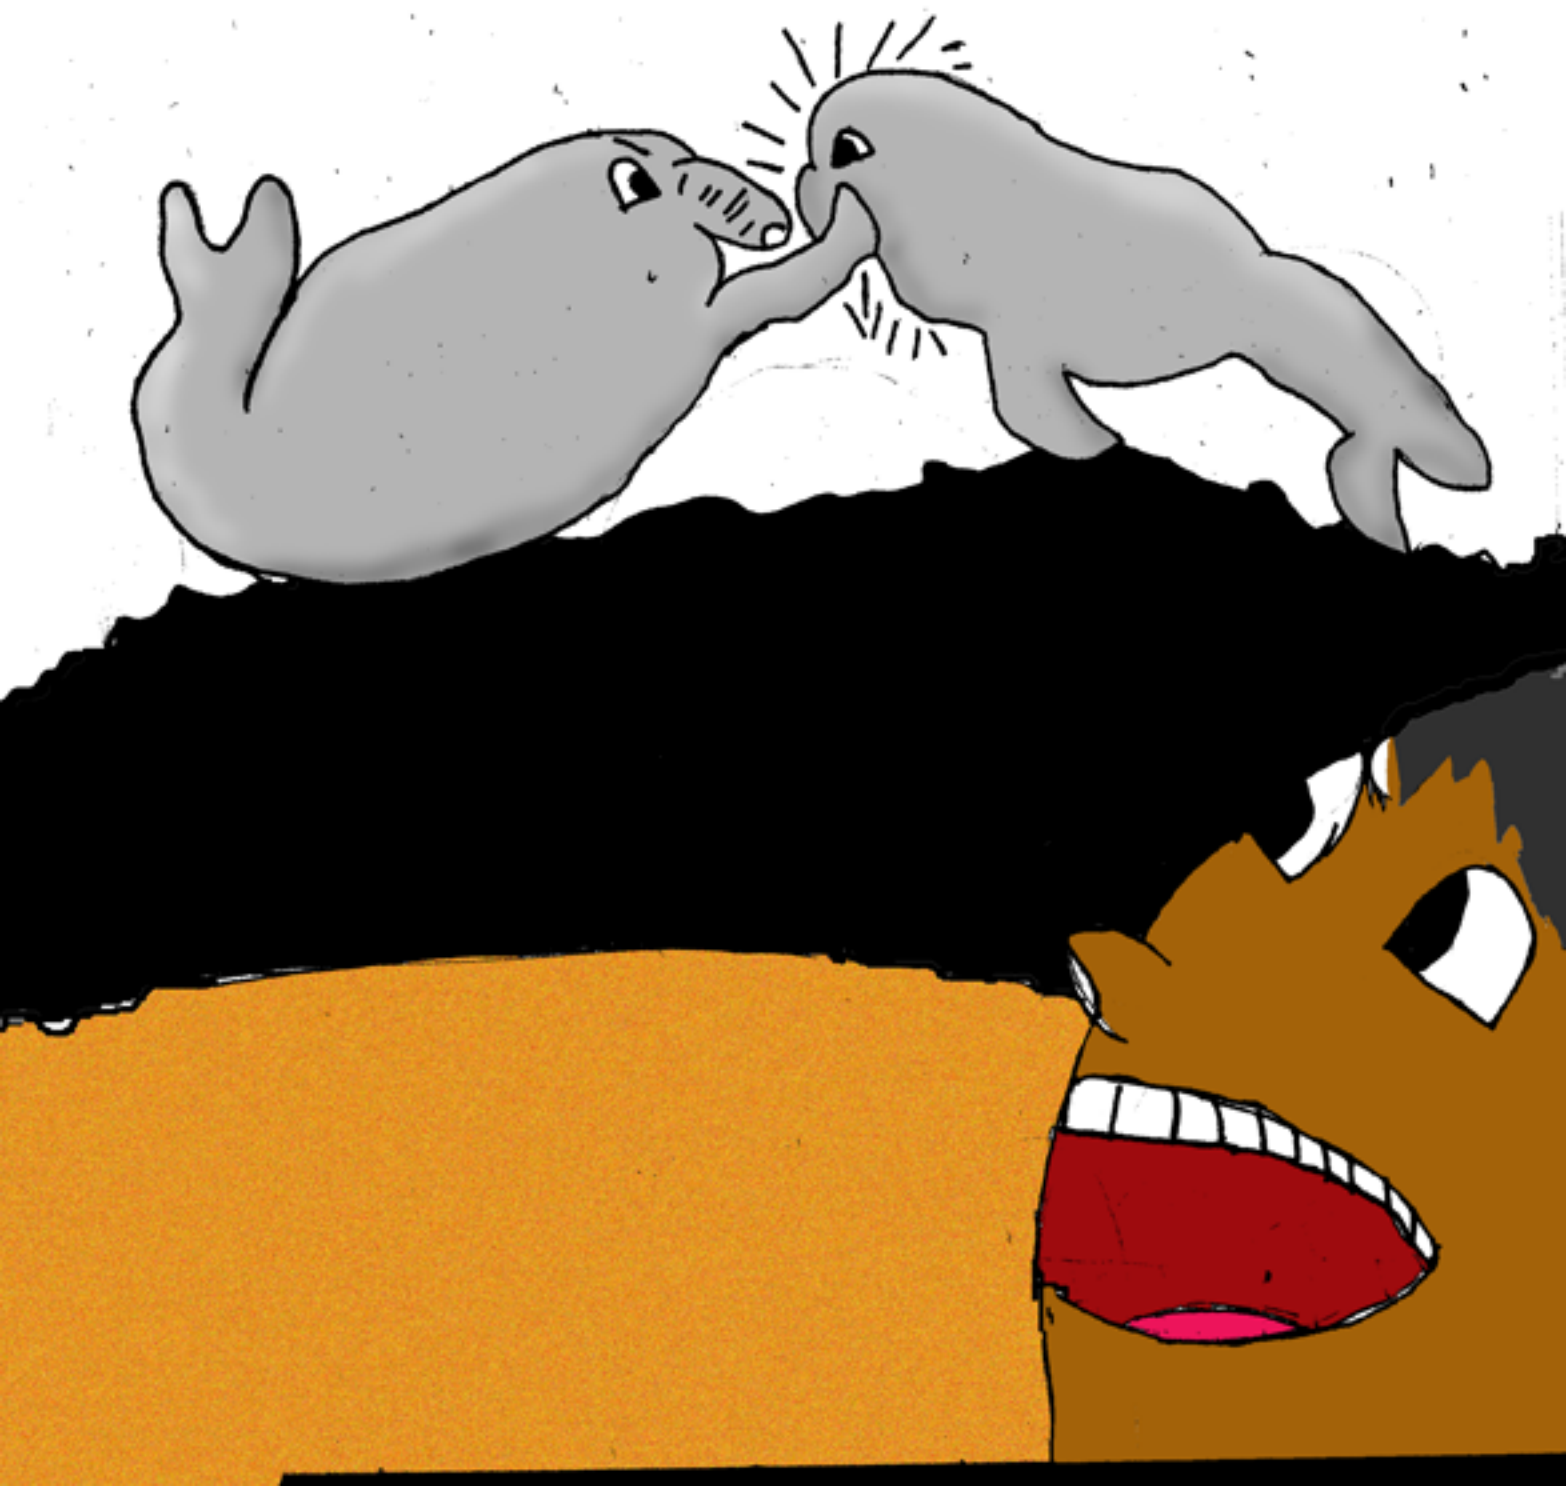

One day there was a man named Jack who was walking on the beach and saw a talking elephant seal named elley.

JACK HEARD ELLEY COMPLAINING ABOUT HIS DYING SPECIES.

Jack felt bad for Elley and observed Elley and his species acts or the way they acted.

When Jack felt he had enough information he turned it into a science lab hoping that they would put

When they said yes Jack told Elley the good news and Elley was the happiest elephant seal alive.
