

Balto

The Naughty Arctic Fox

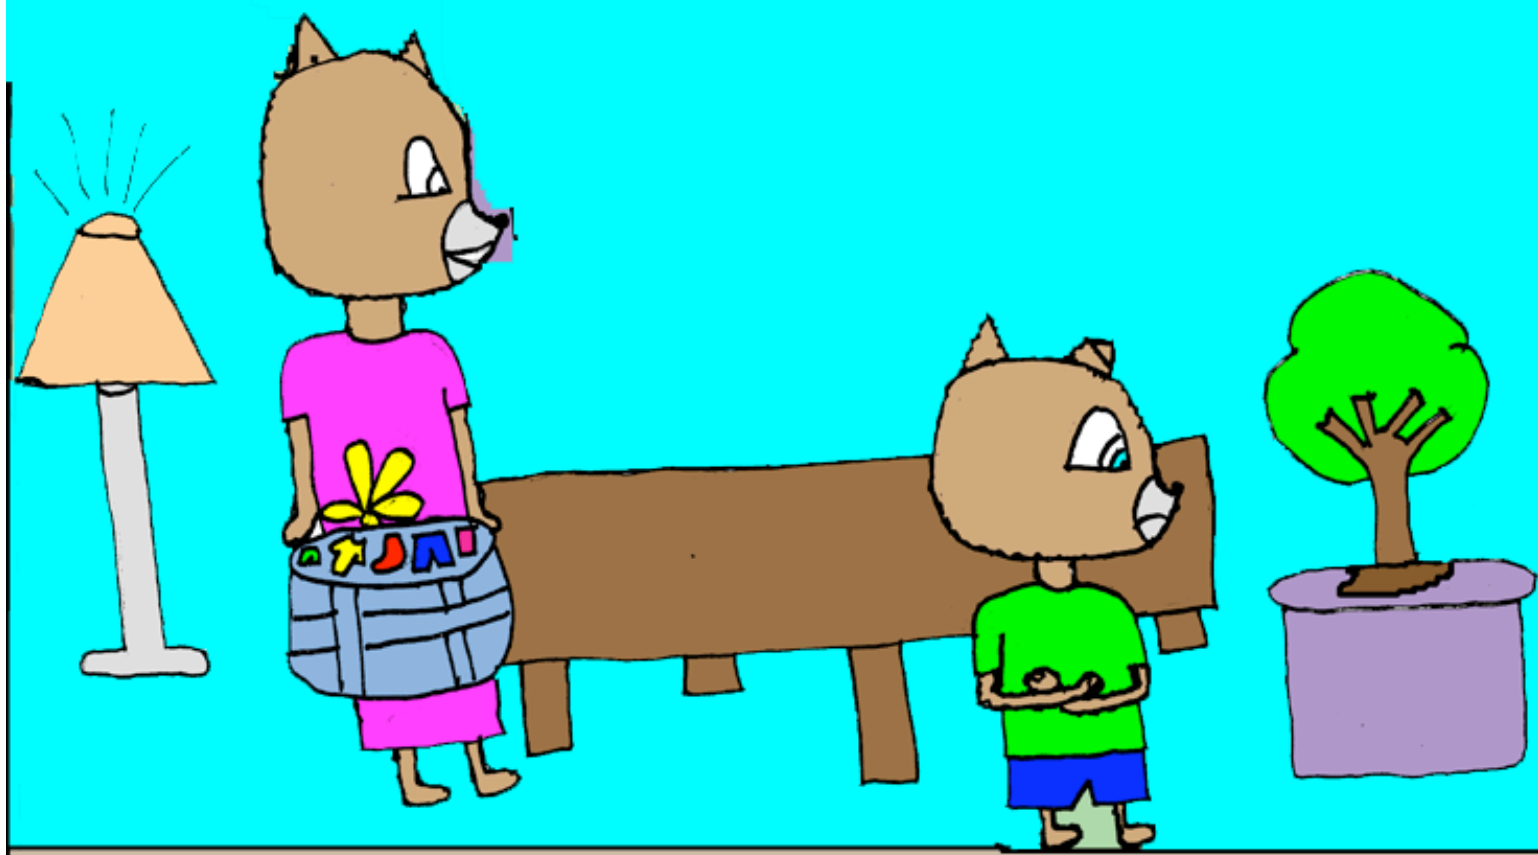

By: Hope Tsuneyoshi

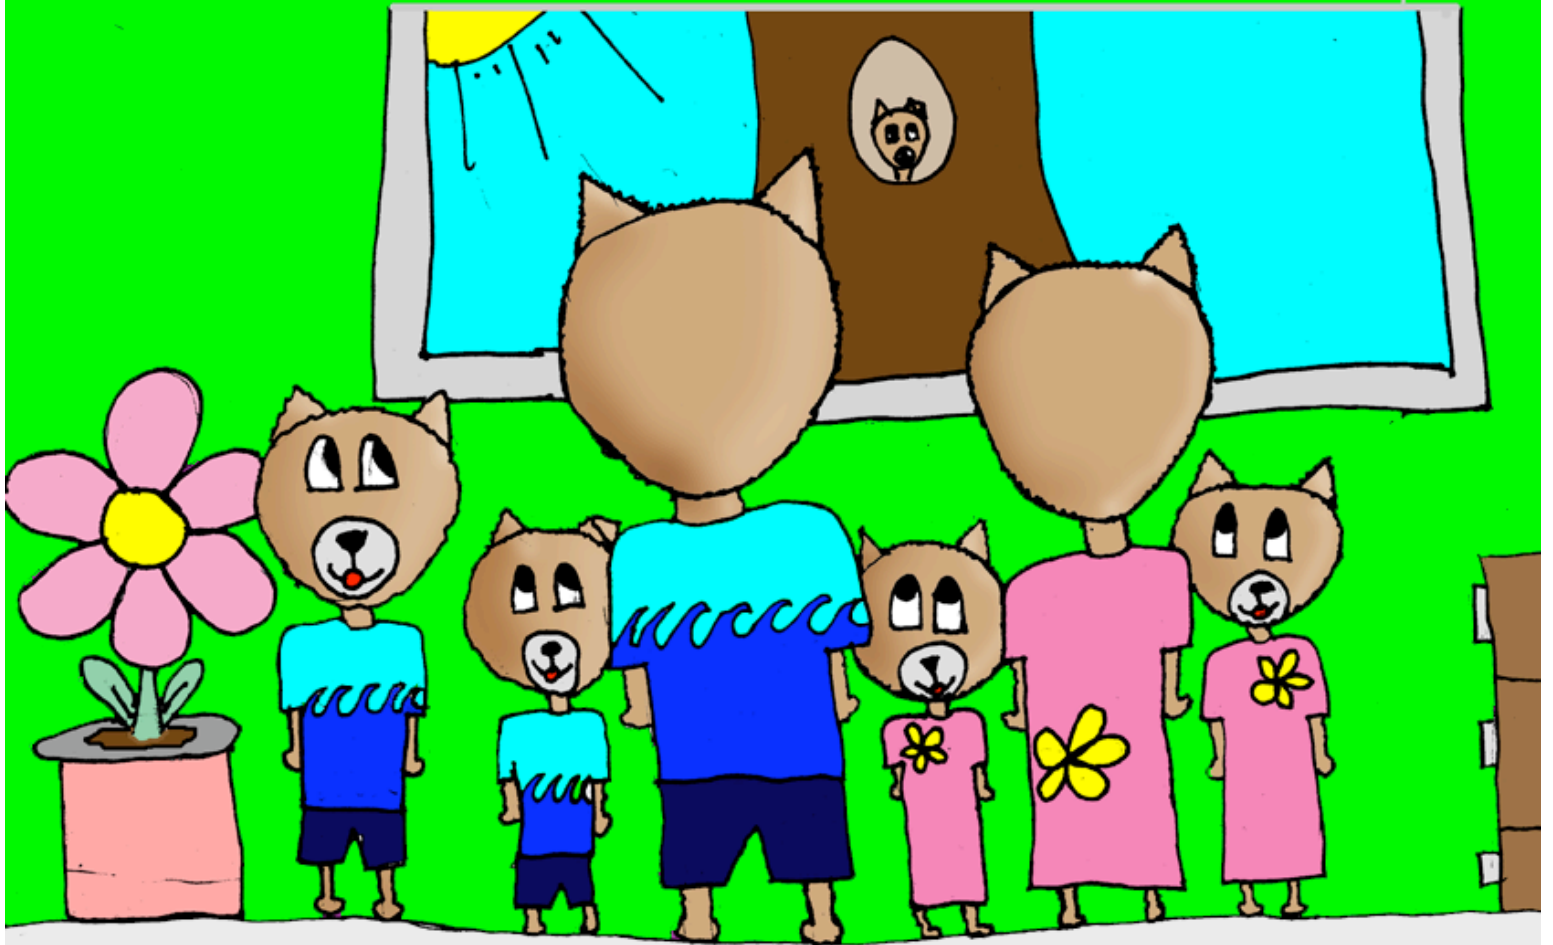

Balto is an arctic fox. He has 2 older sisters named Ella and Lilli, he has a brother named Bruno, a mom and a dad. His family loves him but he is very naughty.

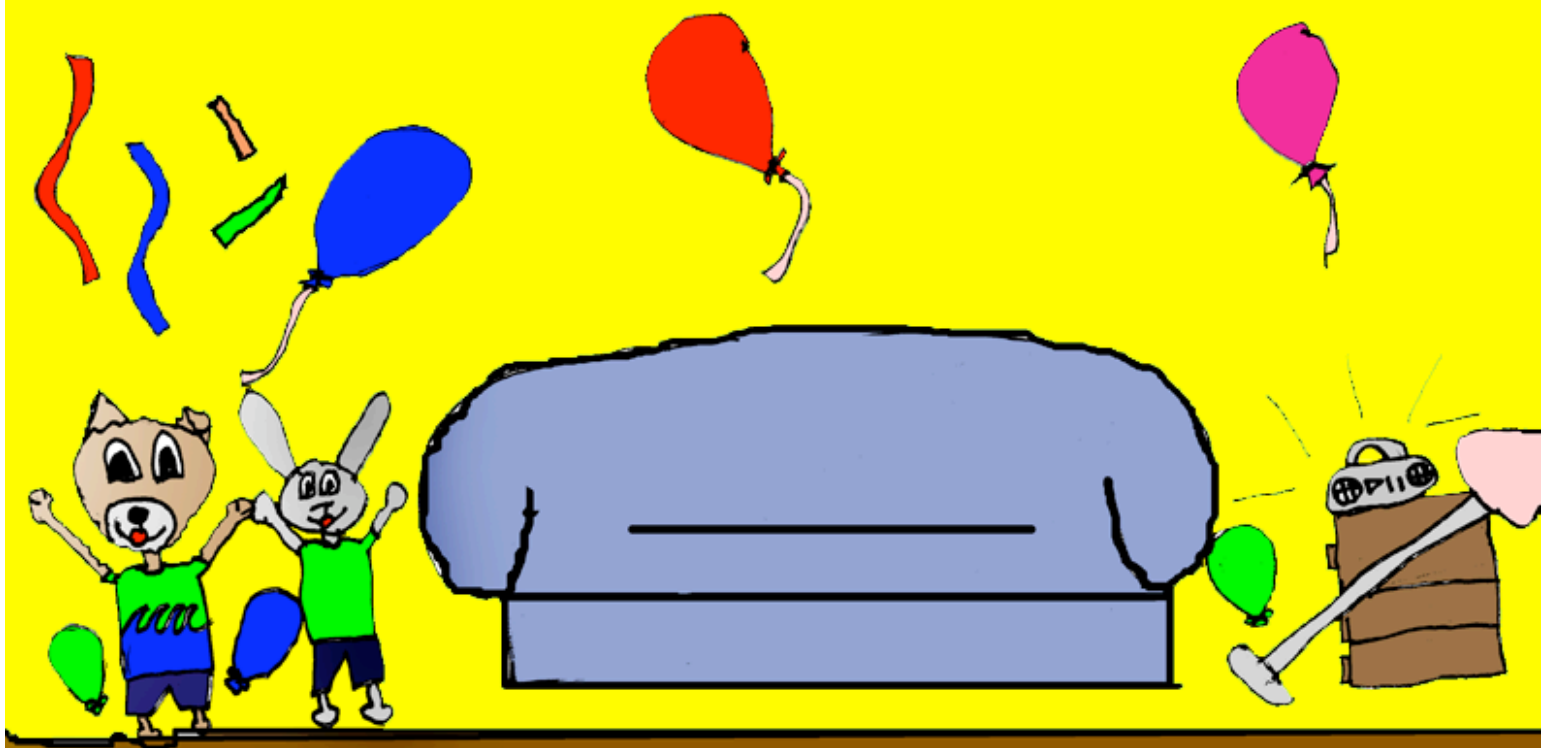

Balto was a very naughty boy. He never listened to his parents and threw parties without them knowing.

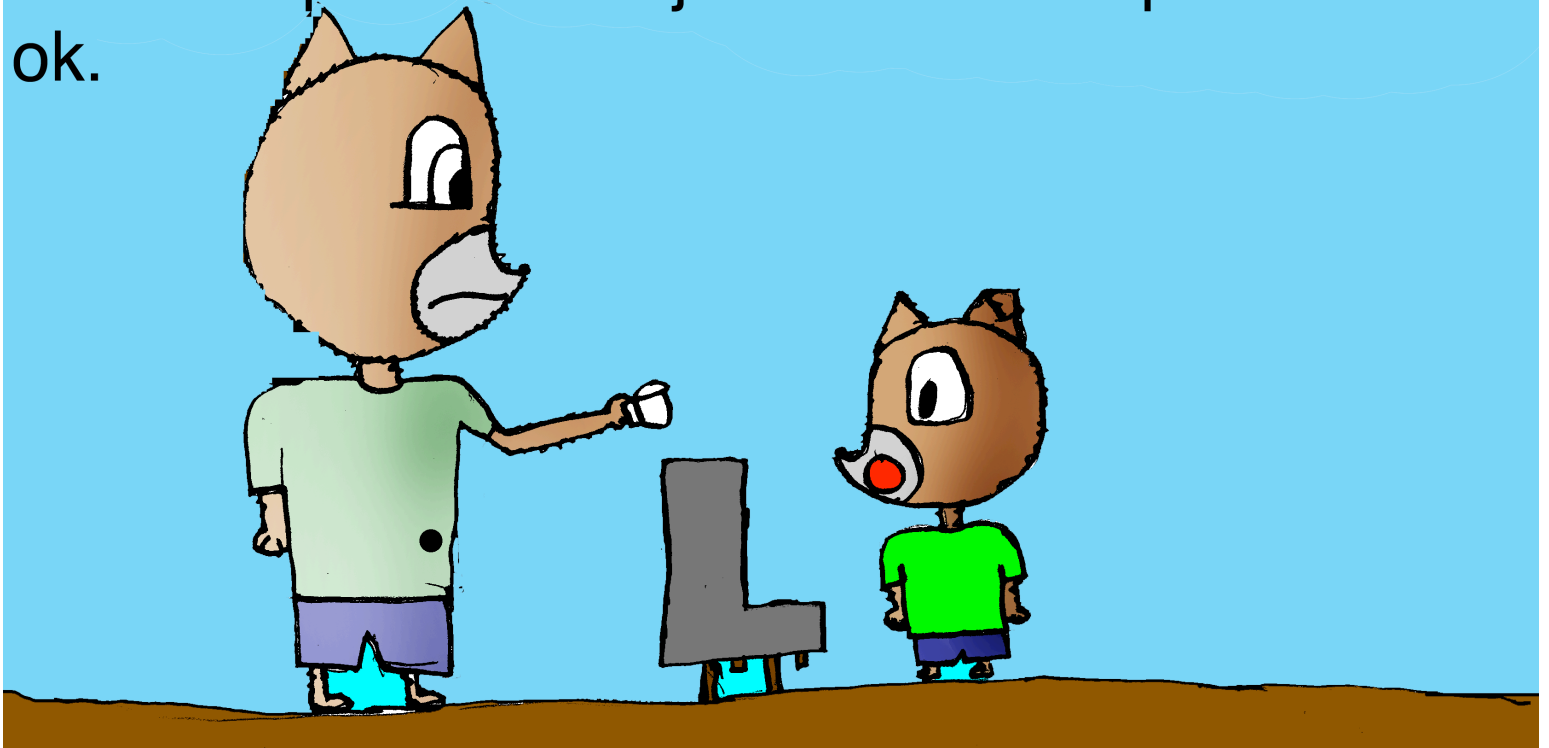

One day his parents told them, "We are going on a trip." Everyone was so excited.

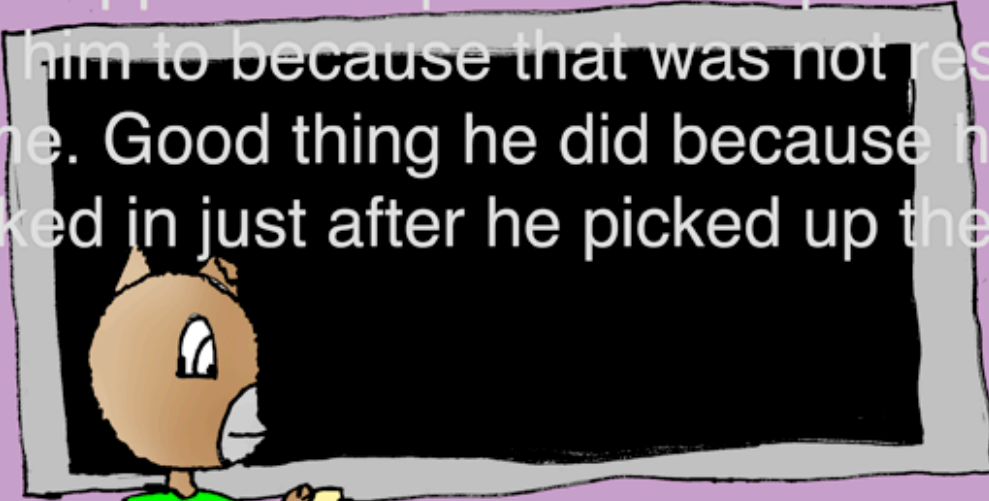

He was so happy he threw a big party!
Then he got in trouble. His parents told him, "If you don't learn respect, you are not going on the trip."

One day his dad did not give him his favorite cup. He was about to yell, but Bruno reminded him about respect. So he just took the cup and was ok.

He dropped a chip and didn't pick it up. But Lilli told him to because that was not respecting the home. Good thing he did because his mom walked in just after he picked up the chip.

At dinner that night his parents told him he could come on the trip with them. He was so happy he was the first one to pack up everything.

Once Balto got on the plane he knew it would be the best trip ever!
