

Tri-Division Celebration of Life in Honor of Pauahi
Hele Lā o Kaiona

Breast Cancer Awareness

In honor of Princess Pauahi,
we are celebrating Breast
Cancer Awareness month.
She died October 16, 1884 of breast cancer.

Friday, October 14, 2011

$1.00 DONATION TO SUSAN G. KOMEN

GUIDELINES:

You may wear pink...

- Shirts, blouses, long pants, capris, dresses, skirts, shorts, socks, shoes.
*No need to tuck in shirts
- OK to wear t-shirts & outerwear that are pink.
- OK to wear jeans or uniform bottoms.
- If you have P.E. that day, YOU MUST WEAR or BRING your athletic shoes & socks.
- Girls – sandals with back straps only. (Just like aloha wear day)

What NOT to wear:

- Cut-off jeans / shorts
- Ragged or puka jeans / shorts
- Short shorts
- Spaghetti strapped / strapless blouses or dresses
- Halter tops / dresses
- Girls: no open backed sandals; no high heeled sandals
- Slippers
- Hats or sunglasses

