

Aloha Wear Days at Kula Ha'aha'a!

Aloha Wear Days are scheduled (for the most part) on the last Friday of each month. You may wish to review your Parent & 'Ohana calendar to note the dates.

Guidelines for Aloha Wear Day, as well as other special event days, are noted on pages 23-24 in the 2015-2016 Student and Parent Handbook . Excerpts from the handbook are noted below. Aloha attire is defined as "island wear", same as/similar to May Day attire.

- Boys are to wear athletic shoes on Aloha Wear days.
- Girls, may wear sandals (with a back strap) or shoes other than their athletic shoes (no more than 1 1/2 inches in height). If your daughter has PE that day, she must either wear or bring her athletic shoes to school that day.

BOY'S dress and appearance requirements: (as noted on page 23)
