

Do you have the Christmas spirit yet? Well now is your chance to REALLY get into the spirit of Christmas here at kula ha'aha'a!

On Tuesday, December 15th, you may wear the Christmas colors of red, green or white to school that day. That's right—no uniforms that day!

Mahalo to 'Aha 'Ōpio for the great suggestion!

Here are the guidelines:

-  Wear red or green tops/bottoms/socks. If you have a Christmas dress or t-shirt wear it! If the colors red/green/white are in your shirts/dresses/pants wear it!
-  OK- to wear shorts, jeans, capri's, tights (for girls) (jeans can be blue/black/white).
-  Footwear: If you have P.E. that day, must wear your athletic shoes/socks. If not, then ok to wear sandals with back-straps and low heels (girls).

What NOT to wear:

-  Girls: No tank tops, spaghetti straps, no short shorts or short tights, no slippers; no hats, no dangling earrings.
-  Boys: No tank tops, slippers, no hats, no cut off shorts.

Happy
Holidays!
