

Department of Parks & Recreation
Queen Lili'uokalani Children's Center
Read to Me International

"THE IMPORTANCE OF READING ALOUD TO CHILDREN" WORKSHOP

Presented by Mrs. Lynne Waihee,
President of Read to Me International
& Certified Literacy Trainer

January 27, 2016 (Wednesday)

Time: 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Workshop Site: Queen Lili'uokalani Children's Center
919 Ululani Street, Hilo, Hawaii 96720

*****

- ◆ Great Benefits of Reading Aloud
- ◆ Modeling the Art of Reading Aloud
- ◆ Read-Aloud Tips & Strategies
  - ◆ Book Talk
  - ◆ Treasure Hunt

(Reading to each other & sharing the experience with others)

- ◆ Extending the Read Aloud Experience
(arts & crafts, singing, echo-reading, etc.)

*****

Seating is limited. Please register by January 20, 2016, 4:30 pm.

Supplies: Please bring scissors, pen or pencil.

To reserve your space please call:

Evelyn Togashi, Read to Me International Hawai'i Island Committee 959-6727

POLICY OF NON-DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY

The Department of Parks and Recreation provides recreational opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion or disability. Please call Alisa Mitchener, Recreation Specialist, 961-8681, to discuss your need for reasonable accommodation or for more information on site accessibility