

Stacy Naipo, comes from a long line of succession here at Kamehameha, with the first Naipo in the class of 1895. Stacy graduated from Kamehameha in 1982, and after 16 years in Chicago, she returned to Hawai'i to get her MLISc, and is the current archivist at the Kamehameha Schools Kapālama Campus, while also pursuing her PhD in the Communication and Information Science program at UH Mānoa.