

Ke Kānāwai Māmalahoa - 'ANA practice

E unuhi mai i kēia mau māmala'ōlelo i ka 'ōlelo Hawai'i: Use these sentences to help you retell the story. These shouldn't be the only type of sentences you use in your retell. You must however demonstrate at least 2 of each Kí'a Pepeke 'Ana – Ka'í (nono'a) + painu + 'ana + hunekuhi

I ...when/while someone does something i kona holo 'ana ...when he sailed ma mua/ma hope o ...before/after someone does something ma mua o kona holo 'ana ...after he sailed

no ...because, due to someone doing something no ko lākou holo 'ana ...in order for them to sail

Desc. ...the way someone does something

Akamai kona holo 'ana His sailing was skillful.

1. When Kamehameha was battling in Hilo, he didn't attain the lei of victory.
2. Kamehameha returned with his warriors to Laupāhoehoe in order to build a new heiau for his god Kūka'ilimoku.
3. Kamehameha and his warriors sailed to Puna on two canoes in order to get a sacrifice for this heiau.
4. Because they were paddling the entire night, they became tired and thirsty.
5. After fishing for a long time, they didn't even get one fish.
6. When they arrived at the shore of Puna, at the beach of Pāpa'i, Kamehameha saw some fishermen.
7. When they saw Kamehameha folks, they became very scared and they fled.
8. Their running was fast.
9. After chasing the 2 fishermen upland, atop the lava rocks, Kamehameha's leg got stuck in one rock crevice.
10. Because his leg was stuck in a rock crevice, he couldn't stand or run.
11. When the two men saw him lying on the rock, they returned saying, "Ha! Pinworm poop! Serves you right!"
12. After they picked up the paddle, they hit Kamehameha over the head with force.
13. After they hit Kamehameha on the head, the paddle splintered.
14. The hitting was strong.
15. When they saw Kamehameha, they thought he was dead because his eyes were open and white.
16. When the fishermen left, Kamehameha knew that he was wrong!
17. After some years, Kamehameha said the law of the splintered paddle.