

Performance Task Template

Grade: 12

Course Name: Ka Mo'olelo Hawai'i

Goal	Your goal is....The problem or challenge is...(Should connect to your learning goals.)
Collect and analyze three primary documents(articles/mele/letters) that support or oppose the annexation of Hawai'i.
Role	You are...You have been asked to....Your job is...
Your job is that of a Congressional lobbyist or testifier. You must persuade Congress to either support or oppose annexation.
Audience	Your clients are....The target audience is....You need to convince...
Your audience is a Congressional Committee of the United States Congress (1897).
Situation	The challenge involved dealing with...The situation you find yourself in is...
You will be assigned a specific role either supporting or opposing annexation. You need to fight for that side, giving voice and representation to your constituents.
Product/ Performance	You will create....in order to....You need to develop....so that....
Write and deliver a two minute persuasive speech to the Congressional committee who will make a recommendation to Congress based on information from your testimony and the testimonies of others.
Success Criteria	Your work will be judged by...Your performance needs to be...A successful result will include...
Your work will be scored by peers and instructor according to rubrics generated by all prior to the hearings. The Congressional Committee will render their decision based on how persuaded they were by your arguments. Basic criteria includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Use of quotes from primary sources such as letters, mele, articles and speeches- Delivery of clear, convincing, passionate arguments

- Eye contact
-

Pilot Administration

1. With which block will you administer your performance task and collect baseline data?
2. What is the time frame for administering your performance task? (Should be the same if teaching the same content and grade/level as another teacher.)
3. What kind of support or resources do you need to accomplish this task?