

MOYA Art Contest

Month of the Young Adolescent

Calling All Middle School Students “Working Together to Make A Positive Difference”

The Hawaii Association of Middle Schools (HAMS) is celebrating the 13th annual Month Of the Young Adolescent (MOYA) by holding an art contest. HAMS is looking for original student artwork that shows how today's young adolescents lead the way in making a positive difference in their homes, schools, communities, and the world.

Contest winners will receive:

Grand Prize Winner $50.00. School of grand prize winner will win $250.00 gift certificate. Three $25.00 awards will be given to the runner-ups, and the teachers of the runner-ups will each receive a $100.00 gift certificate. Teacher must be HAMS individual or institutional member to submit Art Work from a student.

Contest Guidelines:

- ❖ Original student artwork
- ❖ Any media – watercolor, charcoal, oil, colored pencil, computer generated graphic design
- ❖ Include two or three sentences telling us about the artwork and how it relates to the theme.
- ❖ Submissions will not be returned. Good quality color photocopies are acceptable.

Judging:

- ❖ Quality of the artwork
- ❖ How well the written statement relates to the artwork

Please complete the submission form on the back of this informational sheet and submit to your principal. Entries must be postmarked by September 15, 2009.
