The Beach. With the warm sun, soft sand and some sweet waves!!!!

Me, and my friends Heidi and Merissa. Dressed as a Black-eyed pea, a pirate and a fairy.

The State Capital, where it is almost always sunny.

Me enjoying my Christmas, and all the presents.

My pen-pal assignment shows many things about me. It shows how I am a colorful person, exemplified with the bright reds, greens and yellows. It also shows how I am simple and similar to others, shown by the blacks and dull blues and purples. My assignment is filled with more bright colors, showing that I am much more creative than simple. I placed various pictures into my assignment, showing my love for basketball, my enjoyment in the company of friends (text words and friend picture). There is also a picture of my Halloween costume and my Christmas, complete with presents, tree and smiles. Lastly, are pictures of the beach, which I frequently visit and a picture of the state Capital which is pretty much a second home, since my parents work there and is almost always sunny and beautiful. I made sure to emphasize the friendships that I have to show how I depend on my friends for much, and how they are like my second family and mean a lot to me.
