Ka Ulu Pono (Growing Righteously)
Culminating Activity

Topic: Ka Ulu Pono (Growing Righteously)

Rationale:
The purpose of this activity is for 7th and 8th grade haumāna to reflect upon their school year and select a Hawaiian value they can closely identify with because of their experiences this year.

Activities:
Ka Ulu Pono Essential Questions
Ka Ulu Pono Keychain
Ka Ulu Pono Presentations

Duration: 3 advisory periods on May 3, 17, and 19, 2011

Procedure:

1. 1st advisory period
   1. Explain to haumāna that they will be answering essential questions. Haumāna will have an opportunity to share their responses with the rest of the advisory.
   2. Instruct haumāna to open the document “Ka Ulu Pono Essential Questions” on their laptop.
   3. Read and explain the 2 Essential Questions listed below:

      Essential Questions
      1. How does good moral character benefit self and global society?
      2. What is my role as a 21st century Hawaiian in the perpetuation of Hawaiian cultural values within a Western framework?

   4. Allow about 20 minutes for haumāna to respond to the essential questions, having them type their responses on the word document. Assist haumāna as necessary, and allow them to discuss the questions with each other in order to construct their responses.
   5. During the last 10 minutes of advisory, ask haumāna to circle up and share their responses to the essential questions.

2. 2nd advisory period
   1. Explain to haumāna that they will be reviewing the 10 Hawaiian values that they have learned about over the last school year. They will then select one of these values for its personal significance to them, and create a keychain that displays this value.
   2. Review each of the Hawaiian values listed below with the haumāna. Display the posters of the values so that they may refer to them.
   3. Have haumāna select one of these values and briefly explain in writing why it has significance to them. They should be able to tie their selected value to an experience they had at some point throughout the school year. Their written explanation will be added to their responses to the Essential Questions (completed during the previous advisory lesson).
Hawaiian Values
Kuleana
Hōʻihi
Laulima
Mālama
Aloha
ʻImi Naʻauao
Haʻahaʻa
Hoʻomau
ʻIke Pono
Poʻokela

4. Create a keychain by selecting a picture that demonstrates or relates to their chosen value. Haumāna may use either an original, appropriate image or a cited, appropriate image. Also, type and print the name of their selected value using Microsoft word.

5. Once haumāna have selected a picture and typed out their selected value, they are to add these to their responses to the Essential Questions. Size of the picture and the name of the value are limited to 2 in x 1 ¼ in, which is the size of the keychain.

6. Haumāna will print the document containing their Essential Question responses, explanation of their chosen value, and their picture and value for their keychain. Color printing is allowed.

7. Have haumāna cut out their value and picture, and assemble their keychain.

3rd advisory period
1. Explain to haumāna that they will be presenting their key chains to the peers in their advisory. They will briefly explain why they selected their value and picture, and share how their picture relates to or demonstrates their value.

2. Review TRIBES agreements with haumāna. Upon completion of presentations, instruct haumāna to take their keychains and Essential Questions responses home to share with parents. Haumāna should obtain a parent/guardian signature on the Essential Questions response form and turn in to advisory kumu.
