He Wehi No Pauahi

Aia i Honolulu ku‘u pōhaku
‘O Pauahi-lani-nui ku‘u haku ia
Wahine alualu waili‘ulā
A loa‘a i Kahuailanawai

Nāu nō ‘o Hāpu‘u a me Hauola
E ho‘oulu ai i ka ua Ki‘owao
Hoapili ia no ka ‘Ōlauniu
Makani hali ‘ala o Kapālama

Ma‘ema‘e e ka hanu a‘o ka palai
Ho‘ohiwahiwa ana i Kaulanapua
Wili ‘ia me ke ‘ala a‘o ka maile
I wehi kāhiko nou e ka lani

Pua rose kaukahi ka‘u i aloha
Sila ‘ia kō aloha no nā kamalei
Kuini nō ‘oe i ku‘u maka
E ‘imi i ka pono o ka lāhui

Eia ka puana a‘i lohe ‘ia
Ku‘u lei rose a‘o Haleakalā
Puana hou mai kou inoa
No Pauahi-lani-nui lā e ō mai

There in Honolulu is my pōhaku
And Pauahi-lani-nui, my chiefess
She is the woman who chases mirages
And finds them at Kahuailanawai

It is for you that Hāpu‘u and Hauola
Release the Ki‘owao rain
It is the companion of the ‘Ōlauniu
The fragrance-carrying breeze of Kapālama

Clean and refreshing is the breath of palai
As it adorns you at Kaulanapua
Entwined with the fragrance of maile
As a wehi for you, o chiefess

The single rose is what I Love
As it reveals the bond of love for your children
You are as a queen in my eyes,
Working for the pono of our lāhui

Here is the refrain, let it be heard
For my rose lei of Haleakalā
Let your name be ever on our lips
For Pauahi is this mele
