It's a Kākou Thing

Due 11.20.18

The phrase “It’s a Kākou Thing” is used to describe a pathway we, nā Papa ‘Ehā Kumu, would like to take with our ‘ohana in build a strong educational foundation for each and every keiki. We recognize the beauty of an ‘ohana working together to raise a keiki, and we would like to start the next trimester of teaching and learning with plan to focus on commitments that we can all make to uplift and grow our children.

Child’s Name _____

Stars... What are highlights both academically and socially my child has made in the first trimester?

Wishes... What areas would I like to see my child grow and improve on in the second trimester?

Commitments... Reviewing my child’s wishes, what commitments can I make with the teacher to support my child’s growth in the second trimester?
