

CASTING CALL for National Parks of Hawai'i Island Visitor Center Films

PROJECT

The National Park Service is producing new Visitor Center films for the following sites on the Island of Hawai'i: 1) Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau National Historical Park; 2) Kaloko-Honokōhau National Historical Park; 3) Pu'ukoholā Heiau National Historic Site; and 4) Ala Kahakai National Historic Trail.

GOAL

To make Herb Kane's historical paintings come alive. The Visitor Center films will convey the important history of the Hawaiian people, from ancient times to the age of Kamehameha (1790). To tell these rich stories, the Park Service will recreate key historical events and lifestyle scenes that depict Hawaiian times before European contact.

CASTING ROLES

- King Kamehameha I, age 30-35
- Keōua Kū'ahu'ula, age 30-35
- 8-12 Hawaiian Warriors, ages 18-30
- 3-6 Kūpuna (men, women – ages 50+) to portray Ali'i and High Priests
- 2-3 Children (ages 10-13)
- 2 English Sailors (approximately 30 years old)

Must be physically fit. Acting experience not required. Knowledge of Hawaiian language is a plus. Accepted applicants will receive compensation, meals, and possible dormitory accommodations. The film shoot will occur over 6 consecutive days on location at the west side Parks and Trail in May 2017

TO APPLY – DEADLINE: JANUARY 20, 2017

Submit email to: gdpcasting@gmail.com. Subject Line: NATIONAL PARKS FILMS. Please attach 2 photos (wide body shot, face close up), height/weight, and a short paragraph that conveys your passion for Hawaiian history and culture. If unable to email, send via USPS to: Rae Godden, Kaloko-Honokōhau National Historical Park, 73-4786 Kanalani St, #14, Kailua-Kona, HI 96740. You will be contacted if you are selected for further review.

QUESTIONS? Call Jackie Pualani Johnson: (808) 937-6600.