KONA-HAWAII 2017

COACH PAUL ALSBURY

COACH BUFF,
INSTRUCTING
MARQUETTE KING

COACH SERGIO CASTILLO

The camp and clinic will be led by Coach Paul Alsbury, a high school and collegiate all American from Edinburg, TX. He had a brief career as a punter for the Dallas Cowboys (1996) and followed that up with a solid career as a special team coach at both the High School and Collegiate level and the Head Coach and Athletic Director of Brewster School in Edinburg, TX. Coach Paul was drafted by the NFL New England Patriots in 1991 as a punter. He punted in NFL Europe and has served as consultant at many high schools and colleges throughout the Southwest. Coach has a proven track record in individual development, has been part of producing 5 college all-Americans and numerous high school all state performers in Texas. Coach Alsbury is in the character development business as well and will guide a staff of some of his former student athletes who have gone on to highly successful careers in collegiate and professional. Sergio Castillo, an NFL and CFL place kicker and punter will be on hand for the camp and brings a passion for teaching and the development of young players. Sergio is a motivational speaker and promises a life altering experience for all participants. Sergio, was a first team All American and in 2013 was the Fred Mitchell Award as the best kicker in the nation. Also, serving on staff will be Haskell Buff, a highly successful special team coach who served most recently as the defensive coordinator and special team coach at Texas A&M, University, Kingsville.
