More information about each class, including registration and payment information, can be found online at our KES Website: <http://blogs.ksbe.edu/kes/afterschool-classes/>

Creative Movement/ Pre-Ballet Class (Gr. K-3) Creative Movement/Pre-Ballet classes are an important first step in a child's understanding of self-expression, movement, and the art of dance. Children are encouraged to experiment with and explore new ways of moving in pre-ballet, modern and jazz dance. Students learn basic dance elements and are given opportunities to experience the joy and freedom of dance.

Hula (Gr. K-4) Ululani Zuttermeister is a member of a prominent Windward Oahu hula family. The focus of our class is to familiarize our young students with Hawaiian music, hula terminology, use of different hula instruments and language with each session being a little different. Our ho'ike is usually scheduled at the end of the school year to give the parents and family a chance to see and experience what students learned throughout the year. Students are also required to have a pa'u skirt for class. 12 students/ class

Linguistic Advantage (Gr. K-6) is in its 21st year providing quality Japanese language classes for elementary school children. The classes follow a four-skill (reading, writing, speaking and listening), spiraling seven-year curriculum. No background is assumed at all levels of entry. However, the writing curriculum is accelerated for students with previous background and those coming from homes where Japanese may be spoken. Due to the later start time, all students must attend Kama`aina Kids at 2:30pm, and remain there until the instructor picks them up for class.
