

Digital Citizenship and Digital Natives:

He Ala Pono I Ke Ao Hou

A righteous path in this new world

Kamehameha Middle School

Introduction

- Presenter Introductions
 - Joy Aiwahi, Zeoma Akau, Lilinoe Ka'ahanui, Renee Teraoka, and Gail Vannatta
- Overview

School Overview

- Demographics
- Program elements
- MS configuration
- Bell Schedule

KMS

1:1 Learning Program

- 6th year of implementation and evolution
- Over 700 laptops

KMS

1:1 Learning Program

- “Educationally appropriate purposes”
- Need to empower students to make appropriate choices on technology use

What is Digital Citizenship?

- “The norms of appropriate, responsible behavior with respect to technology use.”

-Ribble and Bailey

What is Digital Citizenship?

- At KMS, lesson topics include:
 - rules/responsibilities
 - online safety
 - digital etiquette
 - social networking
 - cyberbullying
 - copyright and fair use
 - downloading media
 - digital health/wellness

Why cover Digital Citizenship?

- Digital Natives
- Digital Immigrants
- Symbiotic relationship

Why cover Digital Citizenship?

Device	Grades 6-8
Cell Phones	51%
Smart Phones	34%
Laptop	60%
MP3 Player	79%
Tablet	13%

Source: 2010 Project Tomorrow
Speak Up Survey Data

Activity: Digital Citizenship

- Trivia Quiz

Next Steps

- Next steps at KMS
- KMS Digital Citizenship Blog

Discussion: Digital Citizenship

- Directions: 4 Corners
 - Corner 1-1:1 Program
 - Corner 2-BYOD
 - Corner 3-School Computer Lab/Carts
 - Corner 4-No technology

Discussion: Digital Citizenship

- Discussion Question:
How can you apply what you've learned at your school immediately upon your return?

Questions and Answers

Mahalo for attending our session!

- For more information, please contact Renee Teraoka at reteraok@ksbe.edu